

INAUGURAL FIRE SHOW ON MONUMENT GROUNDS

Committee on Pyrotechnics Discusses Available Sites at Meeting.

The selection of a site for the pyrotechnic display, the plans for the erection of a stand and a possible program were the outstanding features of last night's meeting of the inaugural fireworks committee, in the Willard Hotel.

It was suggested that the land surrounding the Monument would be the best site upon which to stage the display. Chairman King said that aside from being a desirable place to obtain an excellent view of the celebration, the Monument land was the logical place from an economic standpoint.

He pointed out that it would not be necessary to build tier stands because the seats could be laid out on the ground in a natural rise. The majority of those present leaned toward the Monument site, but there were those who favored the Ellipse.

Chairman Harry King said that his committee would not be blocked by any laws prohibiting the erection of temporary stands on public lands, as the inauguration committee always has the privilege to use public sites for inaugural purposes.

Harper for Preparedness.
Chairman Harper is keen for a preparedness feature in the inaugural parade and with his co-workers is making a great effort to line up all the military strength possible on March 5.

He is confident that he will have an unusually large number of soldiers in line. An advance guard of the school militia is marching for places.

The Virginia Military Institute yesterday advised Col. Harper that it will furnish 400 men for the parade.

Letters and telegrams were sent yesterday to all schools featuring military education, advising them that they would be welcome.

The first State to be officially entered as participants in the inaugural demonstration is Virginia. Final arrangements were completed yesterday afternoon between Col. E. B. White of Leesburg, Va., and Col. Harper that gave to Gov. Stuart and staff of the Old Dominion State the honor of being the first State executive to be officially recognized to take part in the ceremony.

It has been decided that 1,700 Washington Boy Scouts, headed by their own band, will be given a prominent place in line. Chairman Harper said yesterday he is jubilant over the decision of the State societies to help in the effort to entertain inaugural visitors. He said that judging from all indications the crowd would be such an immense one that every possible aid to entertainment will be welcome.

Ask Railroad Concessions.
Chairman Harper and Chairman Ben L. Price, of the transportation committee, met yesterday and decided to ask reduced fares on railroads with stop-over privileges dating from February 22 to March 10. Mr. Price has been in communication with the transportation companies. He will report to his committee Friday.

The question of who was going to lead the Grand Army veterans on March 5, was discussed yesterday at a conference between Maj. Gen. Carroll A. Devol, adjutant of the parade, Dr. Andrew J. Hunt, department commander of the Grand Army, and Chairman Harper. It was decided to request the commander-in-chief of the Grand Army to name a leader.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR,
THICK, WAVY, FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Draw a Moist Cloth Through Hair and Double Its Beauty at Once.

Save Your Hair! Dandruff Disappears and Hair Stops Coming Out.

Immediate?—Yes! Certain?—That's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant, and appears as soft, lustrous, and beautiful as a young girl's after an application of Danderine. Also try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt, or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff, cleanses, purifies, and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—really new hair growing all over the scalp.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong, and beautiful.

You can surely have pretty, charming, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.—Adv.

CHALONER PLANS SUIT IN NEW YORK COURTS

Commenting on the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States yesterday that John Armstrong Chaloner, of New York and Virginia, is still "lone" now, Mr. Chaloner said last night, through his attorney, Edward F. Colladay:

"The view taken by the Supreme Court was anticipated and proceedings in the New York State courts will be commenced immediately with the object of bringing the matter again before the Supreme Court of the United States and obtaining another opinion from that tribunal, if a satisfactory decision is not obtained from the New York courts."

Mr. Chaloner further stated that in the proceedings to be instituted he will write his own brief, as he did in the case just terminated.

PLANT JUICE GAVE IMMEDIATE RELIEF

Well-Known Washington Lady
Relates How the New Remedy Benefited Her.

"Forward to Nature," is the slogan which is now being used in the Washington Plant Juice campaign. It is expressive of good, for there is no preparation which comes as near putting back into men and women the vital forces which have left them by reason of sickness and overwork.

There is no theory about the benefits derived from Plant Juice, the new herbal stomach remedy. Every day local people are coming forward with statements relating the great benefit they have received.

Recently, the signed testimony of Mrs. N. Rabbitt, of No. 3312 "N" Street, N.W., a well known and popular Washington lady, was received. She said: "For several years I have suffered with stomach trouble and an impoverished condition of my blood. My circulation was very poor, and I always felt tired and worn out; my food fermented in my stomach and gas formed. I had awful pains after I ate anything, and dreaded to take food into my stomach; I was so nervous that I could never sleep at night, and my liver was badly deranged, which made me very dizzy at times; my kidneys were affected and I had taken all kinds of medicine, but nothing gave me any real benefit until I started to take your Plant Juice. That seemed to be the medicine that I needed, for it toned my entire system up and made a new woman of me. I eat and sleep well, and have no trouble with constipation. I can't say too much in praise of your Plant Juice for what it has done for me. My husband is taking it also for his stomach, and thinks it is fine."

Plant Juice acts like magic in stomach trouble, gas, fermentation, heavy, distressed feeling after meals and on retiring. It attacks and destroys all poisons in the blood, corrects diseased conditions of the liver and kidneys and restores them to normal condition.

The Plant Juice Man is at The People's Drug Store, corner of Seventh and "E" Streets, N.W., where he is daily meeting the local public, and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy.—Adv.

Educational Bulletin—No. 5.

A Legitimate Business—Entitled to Legislative Protection.

The Corby Compressed Yeast Company is a constructive force to which is admittedly due the present superior quality of bread baked generally throughout the country, through the means of Corby Compressed Yeast, or other yeasts which have been compelled to improve their quality by the competition thus created.

That this is true is established by the character of yeast manufactured, and the price at which it was sold, when we entered the field, as compared with the BETTER QUALITY and LOWER PRICE which prevail today.

Our methods have been those always within the bounds of recognized honorable business ethics. We have aimed at, and succeeded in, producing the highest grade of yeast, creating a new standard, and maintaining it. We have marketed our product always upon a fair and commensurate basis of price, and claim the just protection to which strict obedience to the laws of state and right is entitled.

We are makers of compressed yeast—the most important ingredient in bread-making. But in the process prescribed by government regulation, entirely beyond our control, alcohol is simultaneously produced. The creation of a yeast cell creates also a molecule of alcohol. In conformity with United States Internal Revenue laws this by-product is preserved and refined, paying its tax of approximately $2.10 per liquid gallon into the public treasury.

To many minds alcohol is inseparably associated with beverages. As a matter of fact that is the least of its uses, as has been shown by the almost limitless list of demands from the arts, sciences and manufactures which could not be developed without this fundamental agent—and which legitimizes its production for these technical purposes.

Its abuse is an altogether different question—and one which has no relation to, nor connection with, the production of alcohol at the Corby Yeast plant.

Since the establishment of this yeast plant eleven years ago we have sought and found a market for the alcohol by-product EXCLUSIVELY among the arts, sciences and manufactures. Even though at a less inviting price; but always with definite knowledge, through specific agreement, as to its use, as detailed in Bulletin No. 1—"The Manufacture of Yeast and Its Necessary By-product"—appeared in The Herald Jan. 5th.

Bulletin No. 2—"Pure Yeast Was Unknown in the United States Until Made by the Corby Company"—appeared in The Herald Jan. 6th.

Bulletin No. 3—"The Business of the Corby Compressed Yeast Company, and Its Industrial Magnitude"—appeared in The Herald Jan. 7th.

Bulletin No. 4—"The Importance of Yeast—and What Corby Compressed Yeast Means to the Baking Trade"—appeared in The Herald Jan. 8th.

This has been our voluntary policy—a position we deem it only just and fair to make plain to the public, and to submit, together with the RECOGNIZED and UNIVERSALLY APPROVED USES OF ALCOHOL, for consideration in connection with pending legislation.
